SUBSCRIPTION AND USER OR VISITORS

Subscribers, user or visitors from time to time may be asked to provide certain personal information when they sign up for our Products or Services including name, address, telephone number, billing information (such as a credit card number), and the type of personal computer being used to access the Services. The personal information collected from Subscribers during the registration process is used to manage each Subscribers’ account (such as for billing purposes). This information is not shared with third parties, unless specifically stated otherwise or in special circumstances which must be approved by the Subscriber.

However, in instances where UNIFYD and a partner jointly promote our Services, we may provide the partner certain personal information including the name and usernames of persons who subscribed to the Services as a result of the joint promotion for the sole purpose of allowing us and the partner to assess the results of the promotion.

In this instance, personal information may not be used by the partner for any other purpose. We may also generate non-identifying and aggregate profiles from personal information Subscribers provide during registration (such as the total number, but not the names, of Subscriber).

OUR PARTNERS AND SPONSORS

Some products and services may be offered to Visitors and Subscribers in conjunction with an affiliate, independent contractor seller or non-affiliated partner. To provide Visitors and Subscribers some of these products and services, the partner may need to collect and maintain personal information. In these instances, you will be notified before any such data is collected or transferred and may decide not to use that particular service or feature.

Additionally, our partners may have advertisements or co-branded Web Pages that are cosponsored by an affiliate, independent contractor seller, or non-affiliated partner. UNIFYD may share non-identifying and aggregate information (except as described above), but not personal information, with such partners in order to administer the co-branded products or services offered.

ONLINE ADVERTISEMENTS

Although UNIFYD is not currently open to any advertisers on the site, we do reserve the right to change that model if the majority of our subscribers are in favor. In the case that the model does shift at any point in time, UNIFYD may share aggregated and non-identifying information about our Visitors and Subscribers collected through the registration process as well as through online surveys and promotions with these advertisers.

Additionally, in some instances, we use this aggregated and non-identifying information to deliver tailored advertisements or joint ventures. For instance, an advertiser or joint venture company tells us the audience they want to reach and provides us an advertisement tailored to the audience. Based upon the aggregated and non-identifying information UNIFYD has collected, we may then display or send the advertisement to the intended audience. UNIFYD does not share personal information about its Visitors or Subscribers with these advertisers or joint venture companies.

RESPONSES TO EMAIL INQUIRIES

When Visitors or Subscribers send email inquiries to UNIFYD, the return email address is used to answer the email inquiry we receive. UNIFYD does not use the return email address for any other purpose and does not share the return email address with any third party.

VOLUNTARY SURVEYS

UNIFYD may periodically conduct both business and individual Subscribers surveys. We encourage our Subscribers to participate in these surveys because they provide us with important information that helps us to improve the types of products and services we offer and how we provide them to you. Your personal information and responses will remain strictly confidential, even if the survey is conducted by a third party. Participation in our surveys is voluntary.

We may take the information we receive from individuals responding to our Surveys and combine (or aggregate) it with the responses of other Subscribers we may have to create broader, generic responses to the survey questions (such as gender, age, residence, hobbies, education, employment, industry sector, or other demographic information). We then use the aggregated information to improve the quality of our services to you and to develop new services and products. This aggregated, non-personally identifying information may be shared with third parties.

However, we may disclose personal information about Visitors or Subscribers or information regarding your use of the Services or Web sites accessible through our Services, for any reason if, in our sole discretion, we believe that it is reasonable to do so, including: credit agencies; collection agencies; merchant database agencies; law enforcement, or to satisfy laws, such as the Electronic Communications Privacy Act, the Child Online Privacy Act, regulations, or governmental or legal requests for such information; to disclose information that is necessary to identify, contact, or bring legal action against someone who may be violating this Agreement, or other user policies; to operate the Services properly; or to protect UNIFYD and our Subscribers.

SUBSCRIPTION AND USER OR VISITORS

Subscribers, user or visitors from time to time may be asked to provide certain personal information when they sign up for our Products or Services including name, address, telephone number, billing information (such as a credit card number), and the type of personal computer being used to access the Services. The personal information collected from Subscribers during the registration process is used to manage each Subscribers’ account (such as for billing purposes). However, in instances where UNIFYD and a partner jointly promote our Services, we may provide the partner certain personal information including the name and usernames of persons who subscribed to the Services as a result of the joint promotion for the sole purpose of allowing us and the partner to assess the results of the promotion.

In this instance, personal information may not be used by the partner for any other purpose. We may also generate non-identifying and aggregate profiles from personal information Subscribers provide during registration (such as the total number, but not the names, of Subscriber).

OUR PARTNERS AND SPONSORS

Some products and services may be offered to Visitors and Subscribers in conjunction with an affiliate, independent contractor seller or non-affiliated partner. To provide Visitors and Subscribers some of these products and services, the partner may need to collect and maintain personal information. In these instances, you will be notified before any such data is collected or transferred and may decide not to use that particular service or feature.

Additionally, our partners may have advertisements or co-branded Web Pages that are cosponsored by an affiliate, independent contractor seller, or non-affiliated partner.
